WELCOME MESSAGE

Estimados alumnos y partners,

Los dos últimos años transcurridos han sido de retos para todos, alumnos, profesores y para el sistema de educación superior a nivel global. La educación remota de emergencia por la pandemia del COVID 19 obligó a buscar soluciones a la movilidad internacional, ésta se llevó a cabo de manera virtual, pero a la fecha ya estamos las universidades alrededor del mundo recuperando la modalidad de enseñanza presencial en campus. Estamos muy entusiasmados de recibir nuevamente a los alumnos internacionales en el campus de ESAN y sin duda contar con la adecuada información es lo primero, conocer de la experiencia de otros estudiantes es también muy valioso!, tal es la experiencia de más de 800 estudiantes internacionales de más de 25 países y 130 diferentes universidades alrededor del mundo que a la fecha han realizado una estancia de intercambio o programas de doble titulación en ESAN. Los programas de Bachillerato de ESAN desde sus inicios, han estado orientados a propiciar el ambiente ideal para los estudiantes internacionales: elección de idioma de cursos, español o inglés, la calidad de sus programas de estudio están validados por licenciamientos nacionales como acreditaciones internacionales, tales son por ejemplo contar con la acreditación AACSB en sus 4 programas de la Facultad de Economía y administración, la acreditación ICACIT en sus programas de la Facultad de Ingeniería, para la Carrera de Derecho Corporativo la acreditación de CONAED y ser parte de una comunidad académica internacional participando activamente como miembros de redes de instituciones. No solamente es una experiencia gratificante el gozar de un precioso campus y facilidades de primer nivel sino experimentar el contexto de un país con una economía emergente, una fina gastronomía y riqueza histórica y cultural variada.

Bienvenidos!!

Dear students and partners,

The last two years have been challenging for everyone: students, professors, and the higher education system globally. Emergency remote education due to the COVID 19 pandemic forced to seek solutions for international mobility, which was carried out virtually, and universities around the world are recovering the on-campus face-to-face teaching modality. We are very excited to welcome international students back to the ESAN campus and, without a doubt, having adequate information comes first. Learning about the experience of other students is also very valuable! Such is the experience of more than 800 international students from more than 25 countries and 130 different universities worldwide that to date have carried out an exchange stay or double degree programs at ESAN. Since the beginning, ESAN Bachelor programs have been aimed at promoting the ideal environment for international students: choice of course language, Spanish or English, the quality of its study programs validated by national licensing as well as international accreditations, such as AACSB accreditation in its 4 programs in the Faculty of Economics and Management, ICACIT accreditation in its programs in the Faculty of Engineering, CONAED accreditation in its Corporate Law degree, and being part of an international academic community actively participating as members of networks of institutions. Not only is it a rewarding experience to enjoy a beautiful campus and first-class facilities, but also to experience the context of a country with an emerging economy, fine cuisine, and varied historical and cultural wealth.

Welcome!!

WHAT TO DO IN PERÚ

Discover the amazing places
that Peru offers.

Piura: Here, you can visit Máncora, this is one of the most visited beaches in Peru, Peruvians and foreigners visit this place for the surfing and the amazing views.

Lambayeque: You must visit the Señor de Sipán, these are archaeologist rests from a third-century Mochica ruler from the culture that dominated the north of the ancient Peru that might amaze you for its jewelry or for the great museum built for him.

La Libertad: You can visit Chan-Chan, this is the largest pre-Columbian adobe city in America and the 2nd largest in the world, built by the Chimu culture, have a great time learning how they manage to develop a high-level irrigation system in such an arid place.

Ancash: You have several things to do in here, just to name a few, the Laguna 69, is one of the most beautiful lagoons in the world and a very trending Instagram location. It is located near Yungay and it is one of the best trekking experience in Peru. Also, you can go to Chavin de Huantar, this was one of the most important cultures of the Pre-Inca period. It was a place of worship and has a lot of mysteries inside its ruins.

Ica: If you want some place closer to Lima (3 hours by bus), the Líneas de Nazca is the place to go, geoglyphs traced by the Nazca culture in the arid lands that they occupied that can be seen from the air or from very far distances. In addition, you can visit La Huacachina, a natural oasis located 5 km west from the city of Ica. It is in the middle of the white sands of the coastal desert of Peru.

Arequipa: This city has the Cañon del Colca, one of the deepest canyons of the world (4160 meters depth). In here you can do hiking, biking, bird (Condor) watching, back horse riding and lots of other amazing activities.

Cajamarca: In here you can visit the Complejo Arqueológico Cumbemayo, an archaeological stone forest where you can also find caves with engravings and petroglyphs. Not only you will enjoy that landscape, but the Ventanillas de Otuzco are in here too, known as Necropolis of Otuzco, these funerary building look like windows and are surrounded by lots of secrets.

Junin: In this place, you can go to the Catarata Tsomontonari, a waterfall where you can climb to the the top and have a great experience. In here, you can also try one of the best, or at least most expensive, coffees in the world ("supplied" by south-american coatis).

Puno: In here, you can go to the Lago Titicaca, the highest navigable lake in the world. With blue water, it surrounds the city of Puno and it is shared by both Peru and Bolivia. It is considered a Natural Heritage of Peru. Also, you can enjoy the Diablada, a typical dance of Puno that represents the eternal fight between the good against the evil, it show how the old cultures merged with the Christian religions when the colonization happened.

Loreto: In this hot place, you can be amazed by the Río Amazonas, the longest and largest river in the world, it has been helping to connect small towns for centuries in the jungle and it is one of the reasons why this place is considered one of the main "lungs" of the Earth. Moreover, you can go to meet the Osos perezosos, native South American animals that are in danger of extinction and can be seen in especial places where they keep them in order to avoid their hunting.

Cuzco: You can visit The Rainbow Mountain, a geographical feature that belongs to the Ausangate Mountain in the Vilcanota mountain range. Its highest point is at 5,000 meters above sea level. Also you can visit Machu Picchu, one of the 7 Wonders of the World, it is an Inca city built of stone at the top of a mountain and surrounded by temples. It is considered a cultural heritage of humanity.

WHAT TO DO IN LIMA

Is also known as "The City of the Kings, it provides access to all kinds of facilities and plenty of attractions such as museums, archeological sites among others. Moreover, Lima is a city that lives and breathes by the sea, which is modern, entertaining and above all, gourmet. Its restaurants, both the traditional and those that serve fusion cuisine, transform a visit into a delight to the senses that ensure a pleasant and comfortable stay in the city.

INFORMATION UPON ARRIVAL IN LIMA - PERU

Course Registration

UE will provide the exchange student with updated information about courses and program schedules upon arrival. The course registration will be done during the mandatory welcome session (two weeks before the beginning of classes). Please note the course selection form you send us before your students come to UE is for reference only. Courses offered are subject to change. Due to potential course cancellations because of undersubscription, schedule classes, and limitations of room sizes because of oversubscription, we require that the students provide valid alternatives to each of their course choices. We will need the help of the home student's international office for pre-approving as many courses as possible for credit-transfer.

Welcome session

Two weeks before classes start, the international office organizes the week of welcome, orientation and registration of courses, in the welcome the students will be given important academic information (e.g. academic services, security, virtual services, etc) and a tour of the campus.

In this orientation they will meet the local buddies ("Junior Assistant") each international student will have an ESAN student assigned as their Junior Assistant who will be in charge to assist international students to get organized and provide them personal orientation with all the procedures at Universidad ESAN before and during the exchange period.

Grading System

Students are permanently evaluated through their active involvement in class, quizzes, reports, written exams and other special assignments. The type of evaluations are established by each professor in the corresponding syllabus.

At the end of the period of study, UE provides a report of the courses taken and grades achieved by each exchange student. Transfer of academic credits is determined by the home institution.

Our grading scale goes from 1 to 20, where 11 is the minimum passing grade.

GRADES	ESAN GRADES

STUDENT'S SERVICES AND FACILITIES

Facilities on campus

Universidad ESAN offers to the students the following facilities on campus:

- Library
- Study Rooms
- Cafeterias

Courses using ICT tools

The main purpose of these blended courses is to give the students opportunities for real interaction through live discussions by VC. The students work on international teams and assignments where they train in their intercultural competence skills that are demanded at the job market. Classes are organized each semester with partner universities located in North America, Europe and Asia.

Intranet Services: UE virtual

All exchange students will be given a user and a password to access the UE virtual platform where they can check their courses and material uploaded by the teachers or any other announcement. They will also be given an UE email address on which they will regularly be contacted by administrative and academics.

It is the student's responsibility to check their email account regularly. Should you have any problem, please contact: servicedesk@esan.edu.pe or call (511) 317-7200 Ext. 44000.

The link is: uevirtual.ue.edu.pe

University Library

ESAN counts with areas of study, learning, and collaborative research. Our students can access our physical and digital collections, specialized in the field of administration, economics, finance, marketing, engineering, technology, corporate law, among other topics. We have more than 17,000 copies available that the student can consult and request as a loan and also if you need help with the research projects, you can access to personalized workshops and consultancies and collection of information.

ESAN labs

ESAN counts with the Bloomberg Lab and the Fab Lab Esan. The Bloomberg Lab is a complete laboratory with access to the largest business and finance data base in the world. Fab Lab ESAN is an Open Innovation Space and Digital Fabrication Lab belonging to Universidad ESAN and a Fab Lab network (CBA-MIT-Fab Foundation) member.

Computer Center

ESAN offers the media and facilities to connect with internal and external networks, including Internet, which facilitates communication with professors, students and worldwide information sources. In addition, there are two fully-equipped computing classrooms with multimedia system as well as wireless connection throughout the campus.

Social Responsibility

ESAN is signatory of PRME, students engage in social responsibility initiatives supported by private companies, including entrepreneurship seminars; management seminars for entrepreneurs; and personalized student advice for entrepreneurs. The objectives of the social responsibility program are to help present and future entrepreneurs in resource poor urban areas to acquire basic management tools for successfully growing their business and to contribute to the professional training of students and citizens through direct knowledge and experience by addressing specific social problems affecting our community.

You can see their work at www.facebook.com/rsuesan

Art and Culture Workshops

ESAN offers different kind of workshops such as visual arts, performing arts, singing, drama and music, and Peruvian and international dance. The workshops are free and voluntary. At the end of each semester (in July and December), the Students' Talent Show features the most talented workshops' participants, also in the first semester (March- July) students can participate in the contest of cultural and art activities called the floral games.

Sports

ESAN offers different kinds of sport in the campus such as: exercise programs (training for improved physical condition), sports training (aikido, soccer, basketball, volleyball, track and field, table tennis, judo and chess), and University Sports Tournaments.

INTERNATIONAL FAIR

Twice a year the international office will organize an international fair, where ESAN students will be able to attend different virtual activities and presentations where our partners will provide information about exchange opportunities.

As part of this presentations we invite the international exchange students to give information and promote their universities, as well as to give advice and tips to ESAN students who are interested in applying to an exchange in another country

Make sure that the exchange student bring some exchange student material, brochures, flyers, giveaways, presentations etc. about your university to decorate your country stand.

USEFUL INFORMATION

Transportation around the city

Lima has an extensive transportation system covering different number of routes with various kinds of vehicles, like taxis, train, buses and numerous small minivans called "combis." - https://moovitapp.com/index/es-419/transporte_p%C3%BAblico-Lima-1102

If you want to take a taxi, we recommend you to use a taxi apps, it is NOT advisable to use independent taxis as they offer no security.

Approximately taxi fares from:

- The Airport Jorge Chavez International to Miraflores district (60 to 70 soles or $20 US dollars approx. for two people), for 4 or more people a van (100 to 150 soles or $30 US dollars).

Currency and credit cards

The currency used in Peru is the Sol. Currently (April 2022), the exchange rate may vary from 3.60 to 3.70 soles for 1 .00 US dollar. In Peru, US dollars are easy to exchange, although Euros are also accepted in exchange houses. Please note that old or torn dollar bills will not be accepted by taxi drivers, vendors, banks, exchange houses, etc.

At Universidad ESAN, we have an ATM that accepts all cards, Visa, MasterCard, American Express, etc. It is located in front of “Edificio A”.

Security advice

In the past few years, Lima has improved its safeness. However, it still is a big city and big-city rules apply to the capital of Peru.

We advise you:

- Exercise caution when out in the city, especially at night. We recommend travelling in groups.
- Always keep an eye on your valuables.
- Ask the police for help if necessary (Lima and some other big cities have an special task force called tourist police, they speak english as well)
- Scan and/or take photos of your most important documents
- Always use taxi applications or call one from registered taxi companies

CLIMATE

Summer
December 22nd.
To March 21st - 20
to 29°C

Autumn
March 22nd
to June 21st - 22
to 17°C

Winter
June 22nd to
September 22nd -17 to
13°C

Spring
September 23rd to December 21st -13
to 19°C

The coast presents, in general, a tempered climate, warm in the north (Piura), a little colder towards the center and southern regions (Lima and Arequipa). Rains are almost nonexistent in Lima, with the exception of winter time when the so called garúa or chachani -a very delicate type of rain- appears. Humidity is high, reaching up to 99% during winter. This increases the sense of coldness.

ELECTRICITY

The electric system of Peru uses 220 volts and 60 cycles. Some four and five star hotels provide 110 volt sockets. It is therefore important to verify the voltage of hair dryer, razors, sound systems, laptop battery chargers, video camera recording, etc., before plugging them in. Should it be necessary, 110/220 transformers can be easily purchased.

SHOPPING

As a modern city, Lima features shopping centers in almost all its residential areas. They include large department stores like Ripley and Saga Fallabella, and boutiques of many kinds. Prices vary according to the brand and quality of the product. These shopping centers include cinemas, food courts, bookstores and drugstores.

The biggest ones are "Jockey Plaza" (15 minutes car ride from ESAN) and Centro Comercial Larcomar (40 minutes car ride from ESAN), there you will find a variety of restaurants, stores, food courts, bars, movies, etc .

FOOD & EATING OUT

Peruvian Cuisine is one of the most diverse in the world. Lima was declared the “Gastronomic Capital of the Americas”. The mixing of cultures and the variety of climates determine the variety of local cuisine.

Peru’s national drink is pisco sour and suggested beers include Cusqueña, Pilsen and Cristal. Other traditional drinks are Chicha Morada (purple corn juice), Chicha de Jora (corn beer), and Aguaje (juice from Aguaje palm fruits).

If you enjoy dining out and trying new foods, you are in for a real treat. Peru is known for having some of the best cuisine in South America. Delicious seafood, powerful spices and abundance of fresh produce (including 400 different types of potatoes) make this country a food connoisseur’s delight!

TELEPHONE SERVICE

There are several options available in Lima to make either local, national and international phone calls. Also cellular phones are extensively used.

- Buy a cell phone: average $30 to $50 (at Claro, Movistar, Entel or Bitel)
- International and long distance national calls can be made from public pay phones or by phone cards of S/. 10, S/. 20, etc. Which are sold in stands and supermarkets.
- To obtain telephone information, dial 103 (service is in Spanish).
